Subject: On behalf of Ron Dembo - One of Canada's most accomplished fundraisers joins our board

Dear CEOs for Cities colleagues,

P6/b(6)

On behalf of Ron Dembo and Zerofootprint, I am writing to share with you that veteran fundraiser Dr. Jon Dellandrea has joined our Board of Directors.

We're thrilled to add such an accomplished individual to our leadership team. More information about Dr. Dellandrea is included below.

Best Regards,

Anna Starasts

Jon Dellandrea Joins Zerofootprint Board of Directors

Zerofootprint is pleased to announce the addition of Dr. Jon S. Dellandrea, CM to its Board of Directors.

Dr. Dellandrea is best known for his tenure as Vice-President and Chief Advancement Officer at the University of Toronto. Between 1994 and 2005, he led an initiative which raised more than $1.2 billion for the institution, allowing endowed student aid to increase from $68.7 million in 1995 to $463 million in 2004. More recently, he was involved in the launching of a $2.5 billion campaign for Oxford University – the biggest of its kind to date in Europe.

Prior his term at U of T, he served for five years as President of the Mount Sinai Hospital Foundation in Toronto, raising millions of dollars for the facility. Before joining Mount Sinai, he was Vice President of the University of Waterloo.

Appointed in 2010, Dr. Dellandrea currently serves as Chancellor of Nipissing University. He also currently serves as Counsel to Perimeter Institute for Theoretical Physics.

Dr. Dellandrea received his undergraduate degree, Masters and doctorate from the University of Toronto. He also holds a Masters degree from Oxford University, as well as honorary doctorates from The University of Toronto and Nipissing University.

In 2006, Dr. Dellandrea was made a Member of the Order of Canada for his contributions to higher education.
